BRITAIN MAY SPURN JAPAN

U. S. Announcement Of Treaty Abrogation Stirs London To Reconsider

States cleared its diplomatic decks to be free for economic or commercial action to combat Japan's attempt by military force to impose a "new order in Asia."

Attended with apparently overwhelming congressional support, the state department late yesterday abrogated the 1911 treaty of commerce and navigation with Japan. That action left this government free, at the end of a six months' notification period, to impose embargoes upon sales of war materials to Japan, or upon imports of Japanese products.

In many quarters it was believed that the action forecasts a "new order in Asia" of a different type than that which Japan has been attempting. It was considered significant that notice of abrogation of the treaty was given just after Great Britain appeared to have submitted partially to Japan's increasing pressure for a free hand in China.

BRITAIN RECONSIDERS

LONDON, (UP)—There were indications in usually reliable quarters today that the government intended to reconsider the advisability of denouncing its 1911 commercial treaty with Japan in order to continue its parallel policy with the United States.

El Doradoans Set Meeting

Reunion Association To Convene Sunday, August 27, At Mosswood Park, Oakland

The annual meeting of the El Dorado County Reunion Association will be held on Sunday, August 27th, at Mosswood Park, Oakland, and officers of the association invite present county residents to join with them in the pleasures of the day.

This is according to word received from Mabel Alderson, secretary of the association, reporting on a meeting of the officers and other members of the association, held last Saturday night, at which plans for the annual reunion were concluded. The Saturday night meeting was at the home of the association President and Mrs. Ed. F. Lane. In addition to the secretary, there were present Treasurer William H. James, Junior Past President George J. Simpers, past presidents George Hofmeister, Ed. E. Cleese and Charlotte M. Laird and Miss Louise Schmeling and Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Sturtevant. Dr. R. G. Hosking, association vice-president, was unable to be present.

Upon the conclusion of the business of the evening, the charming hostess served coffee, cake and dainty sandwiches and some home-made grape juice "all of which was heartily enjoyed by those present."

COUNTY FAIR OFFICE IN BASEMENT OF COURTHOUSE

Official headquarters of the Fair are now located in Commissioner Winkelman's office in the basement of the court house with Mrs. Georgia Clary as clerk and stenographer. Premium books and entry blanks may be obtained there.

The plaques to be awarded in special events have been received and one is now on display at Burger's. The shape is that of a shield, is bronzed and carries the Pony Express rider design. Twenty-four of these plaques will be distributed.

Court Vacation Opens Monday, August 7

Notices posted this week in the courthouse at the direction of Judge George H. Thompson call the attention of attorneys to the court's plans to observe a vacation period opening on Monday, August 7, and continuing to Monday, September 18.

The notice requests that attorneys bear the dates in mind in making their plans for bringing matters to the attention of the court. Although Judge Thompson annually declares a vacation period, he arranges his affairs during that period so that he will be available for the hearing of matters of such urgency as require immediate attention.

THEY CALL IT A "MONKEY DRILL" but it looks like serious business these soldiers are engaged in, acting as a human hurdle for the great Army horse, "Billy D." to jump with Corp. Harry Smith up. This is only one of many hair-raising "monkey drill" stunts the troopers of the 11th U. S. Cavalry from the Monterey Presidio will do as part of their exhibition at the American Legion State Department drum and budge corps championship competition in Oakland. The exhibition will be staged in the Oakland Ball Park Monday evening, August 14. More than 25,000 Legionnaires from all parts of the State will attend the Convention scheduled for August 12 to 16.

TAX RATE MAY BE $1.70

Preliminary Budget Indicates Reduction From Levy Last Year

The preliminary budget of county expenditures for the current fiscal year as developed thus far indicates a probable tax rate as low as $1.70 in the rural county and $1.50 in the county seat.

This is according to Arthur J. Koletzke, county clerk and auditor. Mr. Koletzke pointed out that the figure is purely tentative but that it represents the trend of budget matters as recently aired before the Board of Supervisors.

The figure quoted represents a cut of 40 cents in the rate for last year.

Mr. Koletzke said that the probability of reduction is made possible by the circumstance that in several funds there are balances on hand which were budgeted for the year before. There has also been some trimming of the budget.

The Lake Tahoe airport, for which $11,000 was budgeted last year and never used, is not in the current budget, Mr. Koletzke said, nor is the item of $1,350 budgeted and not used last year for the employment of a county game warden.

The $1.70-$1.50 figure, Mr. Koletzke said, includes the high school and junior college levies. However, he indicated, although it has been the practice in the past to include these levies in the general tax rate, he plans this year to set them up as special funds and the county's basic tax rate as finally established will be a certain figure, with the high school and junior college rates shown as additional levies.

It will be noted that the $1.50-$1.70 estimate includes the high school and junior college levies.

The Board of Supervisors, according to law, must have the preliminary budget complete by August 20 at which time and during ten days following hearings on the budget may be held. Following this, final adoption of the budget is in order and the tax rate must be set September 1st.

Foot Of Silt Left In Wake Of Cloudburst

NEEDLES, (UP)—This desert town cleared a foot of silt from the streets today after a freak cloudburst accompanied by hailstones nearly two inches in diameter. The storm broke in late yesterday on a hot spell of temperatures over 100 degrees. Normally dry washes ran bank to bank full of water and flooded the downtown district. A 32-mile-an-hour wind blew down trees, damaged roofs, and broke communication wires.

Topock, across the Arizona line, was reported hard-hit. The storm also struck Kingman, Ariz., and Blythe, Calif., along the border.

DROUTH PERILS FARMS IN EAST

Rain Breaks Heat Wave In Upstate New York; Great Damage Feared

NEW YORK, (UP)—The first soaking rains in a month broke the northeastern drouth in several upstate New York communities today, but elsewhere in the parched area damage to crops and woodlands climbed higher in the millions of dollars.

Heavy downpours were reported at Albany, Syracuse, Cobleskill, Oneonta, Ithaca and other northern New York communities, replenishing water supplies, curbing forest fires and reviving pastures and crops. Other regions from Ontario to Delaware, however, had to be content with scattered showers which did little more than settle the dust.

State milk boards met to consider the plight of dairymen whose pastures and feed crops were burned out, and a general rise in milk prices appeared inevitable. Farm experts were agreed that only a general rain of at least three or four inches could save produce crops for the August market.

In Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware alone the damage estimated was more than $10,000,000 with the figure rising at the rate of $1,000,000 a day.

The rain broke, at least temporarily, a heat wave which had claimed at least six lives in New York state.

School Budget Hearing Set

Taxpayers Notified Of Times Of Board Meetings In Six Districts

Advertisements are published this week at the direction of the Superintendent of Schools as required by law, calling public attention to the time and place for hearings upon proposed budgets in six county school districts, including the high school district.

The other five districts are: Placerville Grammar school, which will have its hearing on Friday, August 4, at seven o'clock at the school building;

Camino school district, which will have its hearing on Tuesday, August 1, at seven o'clock at the school building;

Smith Flat school district, which will have its hearing Thursday, August 3, at 7:30 o'clock at the school building;

Pollock Pines school district, which will have its hearing on Wednesday, August 2, at 7:30 o'clock, at the school building; and,

Diamond Springs school district, which will have its hearing on Saturday, August 5, at 7:30 o'clock, at the school building.

For the high school, the hearing will be on Friday, August 4, at 7:30 o'clock, at the school building.

The enlarged high school plant will require the raising this year of $48,370 in district taxes as against $43,400 raised last year.

In Placerville District $15,515 was raised last year by taxes and this year the amount is $15,430.

Pollock Pines district proposes to raise $9,369 by district taxes as against $1,500 raised last year and it is reported that approximately $8,000 has been put into the budget in contemplation of erecting a school auditorium.

Other districts will raise by taxes the following amounts: Diamond Springs, $1,873 this year as against $878 last year; Camino, $862 this year as against $515 last year;

Smith Flat, $253 this year which is the same as last year.

Airing Of North Side Matter Halts As Flume Breaks On Company Ditch

The date for resumption of the hearing in the north side water situation has not been set.

The inquiry, taken up on Thursday of last week before Commissioner Carl C. Baker following a two month recess was abruptly adjourned Friday morning following receipt of word of a break in a flume of the Georgetown Divide Water Company, Ltd., one of the parties to the hearing.

The break is reported to have been about thirty miles above Georgetown near what is known as Bob's Cabin and approximately 150 feet of flume was said to have gone out. It was reported that temporary repairs were made and that service was restored Sunday evening. Wednesday night, residents of the area served by the ditch heard a rumor that the temporary flume had sagged so badly it had been necessary to shut off the water again. This report was not confirmed.

It is to be hoped that the latter report has no basis in fact, for in addition to the inconveniences of not having water for domestic purposes, and in addition to the increased fire hazard under such conditions, the water in regular flow is sadly needed by the farm users of the ditch at this time, and is required also by those users of the ditch engaged in mining.

Although the first two days of the hearing, held during May, brought

NEW ROAD BUILDING AT SUMMIT INDICATED THIS FALL

The state probably will proceed this fall with realignment of the highway between Tamarack Flat and Pierce's Camp, near the Echo Summit, it appeared this week.

It was learned Monday of this week that certain inquiries have been made and reports have been asked by the state Division of Highways concerning this section of the road and the hint of urgency in supplying the information leads to the supposition that the state anticipates advertising the contract for brushing out the right of way this fall, so that heavy construction may be started in the Spring.

The completion of this new section will provide a standard highway from Fresh Pond to a point approximately mid-way down Meyers Grade to Lake Valley.

Both were controlled without serious loss, the state Division of Forestry reported.

Mars Swings "Close" To Earth Today

NEW YORK, (UP)—The planet Mars, whose mysteries have intrigued every astronomer—professional and amateur—since Galileo, comes closer to the earth at 5 p. m. (EDT) today than it has for 15 years and closer than it will again before 1958.

At the moment it will be 35,022,300 miles away, only four per cent less than the nearest point it ever comes to this world. It will rise low in the southeastern sky as the sun sets.

As astronomers prepared to take colored photographs of the planet with powerful telescopes in an attempt to learn more of its surface markings, casual observers all over the world asked again "is there life on Mars?"

Men who have spent a lifetime studying the planet believe that life, as we know it, does not exist there.

Scientists and casual observers always have been more interested in Mars than in any other planet because it is one of the few heavenly bodies on which a surface like the Earth's can be seen. Also it has an atmosphere. Also it has an atmosphere. It is nearer to the Earth than any other planet and appears to be more like the earth than any other member of the solar system.

The naked eye sees it as a large, red ball brighter than any other star or planet except Venus. Through a telescope it is an orange color with larger markings of greenish blue, mostly in a belt south of the Martian equator. A pattern of fine lines—the "canals" of Mars—enmeshes the planet.

MISS CORALEE ANDERSON TO WED UNIVERSITY MEDICAL GRADUATE

The engagement of Miss Coralee Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Anderson, of Placerville, and Dr. Robert L. Ayers, was announced on Wednesday afternoon to approximately fifty friends who attended a betrothal tea at the Anderson home.

Miss Betsy Anderson, sister of the bride-elect, greeted each one who called and presented her with a gardenia to which was attached a card bearing the announcement.

Mrs. Anderson was assisted by her daughter in receiving the guests and the hostess was assisted by friends in serving refreshments.

Mrs. Vernon Emmerson and Mrs. Graeme Thorne poured and service was by Mrs. Captain Don B. Cates, Mrs. F. Moran, Miss Katherine Marsh, Mrs. Robert E. Roberts and Miss Betsy Anderson.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Placerville Grammar school and the county high school and was graduated in the University of California class of 1939. Since completing her school work she has been assisting in her father's business office.

Dr. Ayres, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ayres, of Penngrove, near Petaluma, is a graduate of Petaluma high school and of the medical school of the University of California.

Until his recent transfer to duties with the Civilian Conservation Corps at Mineral, he had been stationed at Camp Snowline as medical officer there.

Accepting the hearty good wishes of her many friends, Miss Anderson could only reply to questioners that her wedding plans will be told at a later date.

Kelly Grocery Wins Hospital Contract

The contract to supply groceries to the county hospital for the month of August has been awarded to the Kelly Grocery on a low bid of $62.01. It was announced Wednesday by Steward E. J. Willard. Also on competitive bid, the meat contract was awarded to Pomi's Market.

State rangers, aided by Forest Service men, today were slowly controlling a series of major fires which have raged in northern California for two weeks, aided by the fact that there were fewer new blazes of incendiary origin.

However, the weather remained unchanged with high temperatures and low humidity in the mountains circling the central valley.

In Mono county, workers controlled the Bridgeport fire after it had burned close to 30,000 acres, and hoped to control the Hunter Valley fire, which already has blackened 11,000 acres. The Bagby blaze of 9,000 acres still was uncontrolled.

There was a new outbreak in Napa county where a fire eight miles north of Monticello swept 600 acres before it was controlled. In Tehama county, 150 acres was seared 18 miles north of Red Bluff, but fast arrival of four pumping water.

Lewis Doesn't Like Garner

But Vice President Only Chuckles At Denunciation

WASHINGTON, (UP)—President John L. Lewis of the Congress of Industrial Organizations today denounced Vice President John N. Garner as a "labor baiting, poker-playing, whisky-drinking, evil old man" during house labor committee consideration of wage-hour act amendments.

Lewis charged that Garner was to blame for congressional attacks on labor during the current session, including the drive in the house to pass amendments to the wage-hour act to eliminate agricultural processing workers from its protection. Garner read a United Press account of Lewis' testimony and chuckled.

"I have no comment to make; I never make criticisms, or comment on anything," Garner said.

Lewis characterized the vice-president as a "labor baiting, poker-playing, whisky-drinking, evil old man whose name is Garner."

"I'm against him individually, personally, concretely, and in the abstract," Lewis said. "I'm against him in 1939 and will be against him in 1940 when he runs for President. He'll never achieve the presidency of this great republic by baiting labor and seeking to debase America."

ENTRIES BEING RECEIVED FOR EXHIBITS, EVENTS AT COUNTY FAIR

Collins, Lions Club, Round Tent Cafe, Chamber of Commerce, City of Placerville, Shell Oil Co., County of El Dorado, Sons of American Legion, Hangtown Taxi Service, and Anderson & Winkelman.

Several entries from the outside have been pledged. More local entries are needed, fair officers said, to make the first annual running of the race a real success. The race will not only take brawn but also skill.

The first three applicants for commercial exhibit space are Caterpillar Tractor Co., P. G. & E. Co., and Mrs. Keller, Real Estate.

Concessions on the grounds are only allotted to organizations and not to individuals. The Placerville P. T. A. will have a restaurant; the American Legion Auxiliary, ice cream and soft drinks; Camino Church Dorcas Society, candies, pop corn, etc. Other applications are under consideration.

Rev. Harold Morehouse returned Wednesday evening from Berkeley where he had been in attendance at the annual meeting of the California synod of the Presbyterian church. A member of the committee on pensions, Rev. Morehouse held the acting chairmanship of that group in the synod sessions.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By STANLEY

Sports Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE

NEW YORK. (U.P.)—I forget the exact date of the last time I rose in defense of an amateur athletic official, but the police sergeant who is doing a biography of me places the time around the turn of the century.

Since that time I have done my best to atone for this mistake by belaboring the grand panjandrums of play with every key on my typewriter, calling them, among other things, vacuous viceroys, nitwit nabobs, silly sahibs, and cockeyed Caesars. I didn't miss the heads of any sport, either, but ranged from throwing the tabor to women's gymnastics.

Now, after so many years, I must again enlist on the side of the enemy, this time in the person of Walter Pate, non-playing captain of the United States Davis Cup team. From Seabright, N. J., where the first of the four major tournaments will decide the personnel of the 1939 American cup side, is being played, come alarming reports of rebellion against Captain Pate.

The players under his command, all of whom are desperately anxious to earn a cup berth, bitterly resent what they consider the "teacher's pet" attitude of Pate toward Gene Mako, one of my informers, who is back in New York to ransom his extra pair of flannels from a Chinese laundry, says open revolt will come, with the men turning on Pate with their racquets, if he insists on playing Mako in doubles against the Australians.

"If Captain Pate keeps on pampering Mako," another of our informers said, "the boys who believe they are better than Gene are likely to yank the captain out on the court and give him a practical demonstration of how good their forehands, backhands, lobs, and volleys are.

Obviously this is the most serious tennis crisis since William Tilden the Twice used to create a lawn tennis Munich every other time he stepped on the court. It is regrettable that Mr. Chamberlain can't spare the time to come hopping over here with his umbrella and handle the appealing. But as he can't, perhaps we had better leave it to Captain Pate.

He has proved himself a better than fair hand at assembling a squad for the winning and defense of the cup. Every once in a while he does something that makes you wonder if his nickname of "Addie" isn't justified, but on the whole he does a good job.

If Pate does have an especial interest and pride in Mako it isn't surprising. Critics sneered when Mr. Pate insisted Mako was the man to team with Don Budge last year, but Pate had the satisfaction of seeing the team win the Wimbledon and U. S. titles, and of Mako gaining the final round of the national championships. The one big match the Mako-Budge team lost last year was the Davis Cup one with Australia, and it was Budge's poor play, not Mako's that brought about the defeat.

It should be remembered, in whacking Pate over the head for Davis Cup mistakes, that the man is serving as captain for nothing more than expenses, if that, and that all he has to gain out of the job is a share of the glory when the U. S. wins. In light of these facts it is hard to believe that he would willingly jeopardize an American victory by playing friends rather than players.

Amateur tennis is a hotbed of jealousies, rivalries, cliques and factions. A lot goes on between the players that never comes to light, and the man who best knows about these things is the captain. I, for one, am willing to let Pate choose among the Cookes, the Grants, the Rigges, the Shields, the Sabins, the McNeills, the Woods, and the Makos.

forward the testimony of only two witnesses, there were seven who gave testimony Thursday of last week.

Louis Enzler, Cool rancher; Joseph Lindberg, Greenwood mining man; E. A. Connor, Greenwood rancher; Mrs. J. B. Kraul, housewife; and Elmer Freeman, laborer, Walter Clark, owner of several cottages at Garden Valley; and Frank Holt, Kelsey farmer, were those who were called to the stand during the day.

The testimony of six related principally to the type of service afforded by the water company and their personal experiences under such conditions.

Mr. Freeman testified he had, as a laboring man and also as a fisherman and hunter, crossed the ditch on numerous occasions and had, at different times, found animals of various description in the ditch in varying stages of decomposition.

The hearing represents an airing of a protest made to the railroad commission by the Georgetown Water Users against the type of service afforded by the Georgetown Divide Water Company, and also represents an inquiry by the commission on its own motion into the rules, rates and organization of the water company.

"MADE FOR EACH OTHER" STARS LOMBARD WITH JAMES STEWART

Honest-to-goodness thrills and highly emotional drama are in store for filmgoers when they witness David O. Selznick's new comedy-drama, "Made for Each Other," which opens tonight at the Empire Theatre.

The new film drama not only introduces a new screen starring team in Carole Lombard and James Stewart, but it brings Miss Lombard forward in a type of role far removed from the cycle of daffy and nit-wit characterizations which have brought her to the top of the screen's list of comedienne. Miss Lombard, in a word, looking more beautiful and arresting than ever, plays a straight dramatic role—and she does it stirringly and brilliantly.

The story introduces us to Jane and Johnny Mason, a young couple deeply in love. Marriage follows a whirlwind courtship, and although the sweethearts are dedicated to the proposition that they are "made for each other," the patterns of everyday life catch up with them and form the basis for a highly interesting and entertaining film story. The picture will be shown again on Friday.

Ripe Peach Jelly

"SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW" is as nice for the pantry as it is for the bride. . . and if you've never made ripe peach jelly, you'll like this recipe. Peach jelly is still cooking news, you know - grandmother wouldn't have believed it. The trick is to add the pectin to the fruit juice—it doesn't have any of its own.

These directions are quite fool proof, give you nine glasses from just three cups of juice, and all the flavor of sun-ripened fruit. Best of all—the half-minute boil won't heat up the kitchen these warm days!

RIPE PEACH JELLY

(Makes about 9 medium glasses)

3 cups juice
6½ cups sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare juice, remove pits from about 3½ pounds fully ripe peaches. Do not peel. Crush peaches thoroughly. Add ½ cup water.

Bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 5 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add bottled fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard ½ minute.

Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once.

On Sunday, July 23, the Southside Center held their regular meeting at Middle Fork, in the form of a picnic. That is, it was to have been a meeting but owing to the absence of the chairman, Mr. Merle Cannon, as well as a great many others, it was decided to dispense with that part and so a social time including swimming, was enjoyed by the few who were there. Mr. Fred Wessels of Rescue was a welcome visitor and enjoyed the delicious refreshments served picnic style, as did all those present.

Britain May Spurn Japan

Denunciation of the Anglo-Japanese treaty would require one year's notice to become effective, as against six months in the case of the Japanese-American treaty which the United States denounced.

News of Washington's action greatly impressed government officials here. It was expected to fortify not only the current Tokyo negotiations but also resistance to the Japanese-sponsored anti-British campaign throughout China.

JAPAN SURPRISED

TOKYO, (AP)—Foreign office officials were understood to be discussing the possibility of retaliatory action against the United States today as Japan's reply to the denunciation of the Japanese-American commercial treaty.

Taking the view that the denunciation by the United States was of political, not economic nature, officials were said to be studying the possibilities of retaliatory action affecting American interests in China.

The United States action came as a surprise and a shock to officials and public alike. Stock exchange reaction was moderate, but the Tokyo new bond issue, considered barometric, dropped two points.

HURRAY! SUPPER OUTDOORS

—and stop Mamma popping up by placing the whole meal on the table at once

says Dorothy Greig

OUTDOOR meals always have something of a gala air whether eaten on a beach miles from anywhere or at home on our own porch or in the garden.

The trick is to keep them simple. Simple food, simple service that demands little of Mamma and permits her to enjoy the gayety and relaxation, too.

One hot dish there should be, of course, to help keep digestions happy. But that, too, can be simple . . . perhaps a good hot soup or an easy-to-prepare casserole.

Here are suggestions for two summer porch meals:

Hearty Soup
Green Salad with French Dressing
Stuffed Eggs Cottage Cheese
Bread and Butter
Rice Pudding with Butterscotch Cookies
Iced Tea

The Hearty Soup is the hot dish—made this way:

Hearty Soup
2 frankfurters (sliced)
1 teaspoon butter or bacon fat
1 can condensed bean with bacon soup
1 can condensed pea soup
1 can milk
1 can water

Cut the frankfurters in ¼ inch slices and cook them in the butter or bacon fat. Then add the bean with bacon and pea soups, the milk and the water. Heat and serve immediately. Serves 5-7.

Outdoor meals are part of the fun of summer.

Now for our second suggestion:

Cream of Crabmeat Soup, Supreme

(Jellied Tomato Ring Filled with Cottage Cheese, Stuffed Tongue, Stuffed Egg, Spiced Apricots and Assorted Sandwiches)

Deep Dish Blackberry Pie with Hard Sauce Iced Tea

Cream of Crabmeat Soup, Supreme sounds grand but is really easy:

Cream of Crabmeat Soup, Supreme
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 can condensed asparagus soup
1 cup milk
½ cup cream
1 cup fresh crabmeat or 1 small can
3 tablespoons sherry

Empty the can of cream of mushroom soup into a saucepan. Stir until smooth, then add the asparagus soup. Blend in the milk and cream, then add the crabmeat, which has been shredded and all pieces of shell picked out. Heat the mixture and add the sherry just before serving. Serves 4-6.

Fire-Fighters Sent By Plane

Northwest of Coalinga, in the western San Joaquin valley, a fire was burning uncontrolled and 50 new men from Tulare county were sent to supplement Fresno county and Coalinga crews.

The Rocky Plains fire in Shasta county, believed controlled yesterday, leaped a fire trail and across Pit River into the Brush Mountain area where it entered the Shasta National Forest.

The One fire in Shasta county still burned along a two-mile front, after destroying 920 acres of brush and timber.

Fire fighters were dispatched by plane into the high mountains of Inyo National Forest, near the Kern river, to combat a new blaze. The region was almost inaccessible, and the forest service plane was forced to land at a 9,000 foot elevation. An estimated 120,000 acres have been burned in the state in the past fortnight.

4-YEAR-OLD DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED FOR $8,000 AFTER 2 TRIALS

LOS ANGELES. (UP) — Seventeen years ago Adin Alexander, Jr., now 21, suffered a broken arm. Four years ago he sued three physicians for $100,000, alleging his arm was not properly set and as a result has become withered and partially useless.

But persistency today won Alexander an out-of-court settlement of $8,000.

In the first trial, lasting three weeks, misconduct on the part of a juror resulted in a mistrial. In the second hearing a jury disagreed. After the second attempt, Alexander, who was not working, asked for a "poor man's jury" without cost to him. This was granted.

The case would have gone to trial for the third time in August if the out of court settlement had not been reached.

District President Vernal Peterson, of Shasta district, L. D. S. missionary service was in Placerville Wednesday attending to matters in connection with the missionary work that is being carried on here and the conduct of the Sunday School. Announcing a change in missionary workers for this county, Peterson said that Elder Gull, who has been here for approximately two months is being transferred to Redding and Elder Glendale Mouritsen will take his place. Mouritsen, a former district president in Nevada, will come here from Reno.

Dr. Harry Thomas, plant pathologist of the University College of Agriculture, was engaged in field work in the county Thursday with Farm Advisor Ivan Lilley.
